

On Tuesday night, at Marblehead, a man was shot by a sentry of the guard. He received the ball through his body and died in a very short time. The name of the sentry is Martin. We have not received the particulars correctly enough to enable us to relate them.

---