Marbed a Berland NODESDE CEDER DIELED ANGE AUCEDOSED TE

essenter

ALLEN LINDSEY & CO Publishers and Proprietors. FASILINGTON ST. MARBLEITEAD. Allen Lindsey . Wm. S. Phillips, Jr. ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY EVENING TERES OF SUBSCRIPTION :- $2.00 & YEAR'S aring in divance.

but further notice. discinants inserted at reasonable rates. Special contractsimado with large ad vortigers. Obitary Poory, 15 cents per line ENTREED AT THE POST OFFICE IN MARBLE TEAD. MASS. AS SECOND CLASS MATTER. EDITORS: N. ALLEN LINDSET, W. S. PHILLIPS, JE. from pastors; were common in that pe-GEORGE ÖHINN.

Friday, August 15, 1884.

wrecked off what is now Thatcher's The Arctic explorers under command Island. Rev. William Walton came here of Licutenant Greeley had a terrible exin 1639. At that time there was no orperience and achieved a notable success. and it is fitting that they should be wel- ganized church in that part of Salem, now comed home with demonstrations of re- known as Marblehead. The church was organized with 54 members, August 13, joicing. The grand gala-day at Newburyport in honor of "the favorite son" of 1684, and at this time the Rey. Samuel that good did town was creditable to all Cheever was ordained. The persons who concerned and will be long'remembered constituted the new church were disby all who were present. All this re- missed from the First Church of Salem joleing, however, is tempered by a sense for that purpose. The Rev. William of horror at the fearful revelation of Walton died in 1668. The Rev. Mr. Cheehomicide and cannibalism which have ver followed him in his religious work, been made public, and which seem true and continued his work for sixteen years beyond the shadow of a doubt. Revolt- before the organization of the church and ing acts were unquestionably committed his own ordination as its first settled pasabout which it would have been better to tor. Mr. Cheever's ministry lasted 55 preserve a discrete and profound silence; years, and until his death, May 29, 1724. for what good can possibly be done by The succeeding pastors were :- John' parading them before the world? How- Barnard, from July 18, 1716, to Jan. 24, ever the truth is out, and shocking though 1770; William Whitwell, fronf Aug. 25. it be, we should take into account the in- 1762, to Nov. 8, 1781; Ebenezer Hubbard, credible sufferings of the Greeley party be- from Jan. 1, 1783, to Oct. 15, 1800; Samfore pronouncing harsh judgments upon uel Dana, from 1801 to 1837; M. A. H. them. The stress of like or cumstances Niles, from Aug. 30, 1837, to Nav. 27, day. might prove too much for the best of us, 1844; E. A. Lawrence, from April 23, for it is a truism that "self-preservation 1845, to July 12, 1854; Benjamin R. Allen, is the first law of nature." Still, for all from Nov. 8, 1854, to June 2, 1872, and street. that, the sublime heroism of DeLong and later John H. Williams and S. Linton his men who died one by one, without Bell. The Second Congregational Church resorting to questionable means of prolonging life, will seem to many a far grew out of a controversy which arose grander story in the annals of human en- while trying to select an assistant to the Bev. Mr. Cheever. Mr. Holyoke was made pastor of this Second Church, and the Rev. John Barnard' became assistant Many Republicans would be glad to at the First Church. vote for St. John and Prohibition did The old building was taken down in they not fear to jeopardize public safety 1824, at which time the present stone by letting the Democrats into power. structure was erected. The interior of Well, suppose the Democratic party the present church has been greatly yesterday morning. comes linto power, what then? Does any one suppose the results of the last twenty changed since then, but the old lines are still there. years can be put in peril? Office brings The exercises were carried out acits responsibilities. A party that should cording to the following programme : undertake a policy of retrogression would ORDER OF SERVICES speedily be put beyond the power to do mischief. Isn't it about time to get over the war and grapple with some of the great questions of to-day? And the 2. Anthem, 3. Invocation farm-houses owned by Mr. I. C. Wyman, our right, the old cemetery, where, 9 A.M er's slave man "Jack," to whom his mas-"Each in their narrow cell forever laid," 1. Organ Voluntary. he was fortunate enough to secure the position as teacher of the Marblehead ter gave it as a spot to fish from. Plenty car, but we can sit in peace knowing pleasant. Mr. Sorvy brought our money The Marblehead Light Infantry won Academy and with the small salary thus of the descendants of these ancient fish much praise for their fine appearance at (six pence) and says he has not received great question of all is whether the people 4. Reading Scripture "Life is brief-Given us here Newburyport yesterday. an answer from London. Mr. Digges is are to be found there at this day. There's toiled to subdue that rocky wildernes . or the rum-shop shall rule. It is the 5. Prayer obtained he by frugal means supporte is another tradition as to the residence of and each must bind his own. To bind the shea A genuine Chinese boat is in the harat Bristol. his family and gave his children a liberal 6. Address of Welcome, Rev. S. Linton Bell. · *  living issue. Saturday, 10th .- Hazy weather. This bor, belonging to a gentleman at the Mr. Walton. Mr. W. B. Paine inshed their blood at Bunker Hill and many 7. Original Hymn. Choir education. Mr. Dana's family of sons Neck. It came direct from China. day I was sickland a great number more. (By Mrs. Caroline A. Mason.) forms me that Mrs. Polly Doliber told COUNTY DEMS. and daughters was quite large, all of another sanguine field. and the two Saturdays before a greatnces and letters from absen him that Martha Walton who lived in the Gen Butler as a presidential candidate Reminisc The Sunday police have done much -The Lawrence Morning News has suswhom grew up to be an honor to their. many of our people were taken sigk. We members. lower part of the town told her, that her pended publication. will be sure to get a big vote in Massagood this summer and prevented a deal of parents and to fill responsible positions 9. Historic Address Rev. J. H. Williams chusetts and especially in our Essex 10. Anthem, think it is the cheese that makes it. disturbance and Sabbath-breaking. great-great-grandfather Rev. William Choir -Rowley is sending thirty bushels of in society. Dr. Israel Dana, an eminent Walton lived in as house now standing berries to market daily. Sunday. 11th. - Fair weather. | Very towns And it is not unlikely that other Benediction The scandal about Cleveland was first physician of Fortland, Me, was present pleasant. Mr. Dver came to the gate and localities may make a strong showing 2 P.M. just back from Beacon street, close under published in the Boston Globe, but the on the occasion of this anniversary. -Andrew W. Burnham of Essex obinformed us that a man of his acquaint for him. But it is hardly likely that he 1. Globe doesn't care to take the credit of it. Richard P. Dana, another son, sent the ledges of the old hill, on the same Anthem. Choir ance who came in the last cartel from letter regretting that the infirmities of ved his ninety-ninth birthday last will be able to carry a single state, and 2. Praver. cellar on which now stands the house of "King David," a wanderer well known Address, "The Apostolic Succession." France, says there were 400 prisoners, in some of the states his vote will be Mr. Andrew Wadden. bout Essex County, died at the Rockport age prevented him from being present. Rev. E. A. Lawrence English, taken by the Americans in pris-There is another piece of land, containhardly worth considering. -Lynn shipped last week 6.694 cases rods we came upon the Den Itself, emalmshouse, from paralysis, a few days while some of the daughters were presflynn, Choir on, and he sawapwards of 100 more going ing not far from three acres, which from 0 boots and shoes; Haverhill, 4,023; Address, "The Church an Educator." bosomed in the gnarled and tangled for yacht. to prison as he was coming down to the time immemorial has been known as the Beverly, 1,339; Danvers, 973; Middleton. Rev. F. W. Sanhor The public delinquencies of James G. est, and lying on the side of a range of Republican politicians are speaking of Reminiscences by past and present men artel. "minister's lot," but this is not the piece Blaine and the private delinquencies of Gen. Butler with more friendliness than Monday, 12th.-Fair weather. Very bers. The Catholic Fair. granted by the Salem authorities to Mr. Miss Sarah H. Dodd and Mrs. William ledges, every-where carved with the Grover Cleveland seem to be the issues 7 Anthem, Choir formerly. Is there a Blaine-Butler alli-The fair in aid of Church Star of the Sea pleasant. This day Mr. Richard Tucker Walton in 1639, but is doubtless that Stuart are passing a pleasant visit at the thus far of the campaign. John P. St. Repediction names of pilgrims, who like ourselves, received a letter from Portsmouth, bearance? opened auspicibusly at Hibernian Hall on "horse pasture" voted by the town of farm of John S. Goodwin, North Ando-Celebration of the Lord's Suppe John requires neither apology nor defense, ing date the 7th inst., from Mr. Samuel The Blaisdell house on Commercial Monday evening. Rev. T. A. Metcalf Marblehead in 1671 "to be laid out ver. 7 P.M. nlace. and he represents the only living issue superintends and with his ready tact and of the common lands for the use of Mr. Haley wherein he informs me that when Singing, Sunday-school Choi street, recently purchased by Timothy -Mrs. John Howard of: West Peabody in American politics. good managements will surely make a Cheever, to be fenced at the expense of entered her 102nd year last, week. The he left home my wife and child were well. Prayer. Hart, is being thoroughly repaired and Sunday-school Choir. He also informs us that there are 290 Amer-Singing, financial success. the town." I refer to what is now known renovated. event was appropriately observed by her A Sketch of the Sunday school's History, The Peabody Press is so full of zeal for The hall and tables are tastefully as "George's Lot," located near Red's icans in that prison. Many of our towns-people attended the N. P. Sanbor friends. trimmed and filled with articles of utility Pond, in the Lower Division pasture. Mr. Blaine's election that it copies a vitu-Tuesday, 13th .- Fair weather, chilly, Address, "Our Meeting-Houses." Greeley reception at Newhuryport yester--There were 1,012 carriages sent from perative article from the New York Sun and luxury, and the eight departments J J. H. Gregory cold. The Shark sloop-of-war is lost and Rev. John Barnard, the colleague and day. Co. C of this town participated in Amesbury over the Eastern railroad last denouncing Hon. Carl Schurz because he 6. are presided over by an efficient corps of successor of Mr. Cheeven (1716-1770), every soul perished. Tis reported that disappointment, on looking into the cave 12 M. Singing. Sunday school Choir the parade. month, a number about up to the average Reminiscences and letters. held a cabinet position under what the sales-women who are kept busy displos-The Bay View Boat Club is making ar- ing of the goods to buyers. built for his residence the house where St. Eustatia is taken by Rodney. as it really exists. It is simply a square Sunday school Choir Singing, for June Sun calls the "Fraudalent President." P. Wednesday, 14th .- Fair weather The hole, barely large enough to admit a man now lives Capt. William Hammond Benediction. angements for holding a picnic at Belleeastward emise. following is a correct list of the line of in a posture of great humility, and slop-S. The Press is a Republican paper. -In forty years Gloucester has gained The refreshments are in charge of located in Franklin street, the next house vue Grove, North Andover, on the 5th Misses Maggie Dillon, Napey Noon and The services occupied the entire day wealth over $10,000,000, and 15,000 in to the one on the right-hand corner, a battle under Admiral Darby, viz. : Iline of and evening and were of a most interesting downward into the ledge at an angle South Boston. of September. Mary Callahan. A bountiful supply of you turn from Washington street. , Rev population. There are no very wealthy In the Horse-cars. battle. eager to lead on both tacks, unless ing character. At the conclusion of the of say fifteen degrees, and at the same The mark of the chalk and pencil fiend fruit, pastry and the most toothsome It is amusing to one who knows all nen in that city William Whitwell, the colleague an otherwise directed by signal. morning service; a bountiful collation was time decreasing in size, for a distance of confections fill their table, tempting many successor of Mr. Barnard (1762-1781), very noticeable around town. Several about the surroundings to take a seat in -Mrs. J. Frank Boynton, wife of the furnished to all invited guests, clergy-Van Squadron. perhaps twenty or thirty feet. There. ences and houses have been badly disfig- to part with their nickels. the horse-car, and hear the remarks of the lived on High street in the house of popular manager of Wilmot's clothing Robert Digby Esq., Rear Admiral of the pothing remarkable in its appearance, and, men, and in fact, all present. The old red by this pest. other passengers. Every one is supposed The Sunday-school table, under the Shoreman George Knight, located about house, Salem, is spending the summer at Read. sounding-board and other relics of the · to know that the sturdy brown house look-A hop is to held at the Nanepashemet management of Miss Bridget Dillon, lasopposite the present parsonage of the the White Mountains. Frigates, Marston, Cufentto, Repeat, old church were on exhibition in front of would be passed by to-day with scarce a hotel, at the Neck this evening. Messrs. ing over the hill as you enter the town is sisted by Mrs. Kelley and Miss MarviE. first church. Rev. Ebenezer Hubbard, the pulpit and were looked upon with ad-Firebrand, Fireship. Besson & Harris' Parlor Band of this Kelley, is supplied with a great variety of who succeeded Mr. Whitwell (1783-1800), Lynn harbor on Monflay afternioon, resiotice. the alms-house, yet a passenger enlight-Ships. Guns. - Men. miring interest. Large pencil drawings ening her friends about the points of intidies, spreads and cushions, beside silver | lived in the LeMaster house, located on town is to furnish the music. Edgar 600 of the old original church edifice, the projecting ledge known as Table Rock. City Point cued two boys by the name of Arthur ware in various forms, glass ware, tea Washington street, the second house on Smith and Chester Burbank from drifting on the way, cried out "See the terest The earthquake of last Sunday was church of 1703, and the Second Congrewhich is really full as much of a natural Marblehead Court-house there on the the left hand from the foot of Pearlstreet, out to sea in a boat. felt in Salem. Beverly and other places and dining sets, rattan rockers, cotton gational (hurch were also exhibited curiosit v. h91 !!! And while passing through lower cloth, camp-chairs, marble-top tables, above the pulpit. Choice flowers lent hereabouts, but we don't hear of its as one goes toward the Town House. -Mr. L. C. Foss will next week visit prayer-books, and a large French doll | Rev. Samuel Dana (1801-1837) flived in Swampscott, a gentleman inquired of a Prince George 90 750 having been noticed in Marblehead. their fragrance to the occasion, the pulan aunt of his in Maine, 102 years old. friend, "Where are we now?" " In Mardressed in white satin, which is the envied the house on Washington street located pit and reading desk being attractively Joel Benton contributes to the Aubarring the entrance; but we descended blehead." "I knew it, I could tell by Mr. Foss will be accompanied by his prize of every little miss that enters the exactly at the foot of Pearl, there being Mynmina. 600 gust St. Nicholas a poem entitled "The decorated, and the church thus presented grandson. The aged lady is a sister to the fish-houses." And so it goes on. hall. but one house between his and that of a most beautiful appearance. Curious House," for which Mrs. Celia explore its darksome depths, and then re-The parish table, where Mrs. James Mr. Hubbard. Rev. Mr. Cozzens, the Mr. Foss' father, and on his mother's Handspme private dwellings are taken for Repulse 64 500 There were present guests and visitors Thaxter has reappred an illustration. turning, we secured some mementoes of Grady presides, with Miss Bridget Law- [colleague of Mr. Dana (1832-1837), lived side he has an aunt living who is 95 years boarding houses and pice versa, in a way from Iowa, Missouri, Kentucky, Maine, The German which was to have been for and Mrs. Mary Barry as assistants, in the house of Samuel Sparhawk, Esq., that makes a Marbleheader smile. old.-Beverly Citizen New York and other states, and letters held at the chapel at the Neck last' week contains an assortment of mats, toilet-Center Squadron. -A three-year-old daughter of Joseph read from many absent members whose by Messrs. Bessom and Harris was aban- sets, scarfs, albums, work-baskets, para- and the second house going north from the Cherry of Amesbury was drowned last located on Back street, on the same side, George Darly, Esq., Vice Admiral of 1.30 P.M. adicu. Attempt at Highway Robbery. doned, owing to their inability to obtain sols, mantel mirrors, table lamps, tea-sets, e White, and Commander-in-Chief. Returning by a different route, from Mr. J. Clarence Wilson reports that or Unitarian meeting-house, Rdy. M. A. H. Saturday in Clark's Pond, at that place. bers of the church were brought in car- the chapel. Frigates, Minerva, Alarm, Emerald, Monday night, while driving a cracker easy-chairs, silver goods, cushions, tidles, Niles (1837-1844) lived on Watson street by a singular accident. She was seated Repeater, Monsieur, Flora, Harpy, Lightriages to be present on the occasion, and A letter received at New Haven reports | etc. From Marblehead to Lynn, when in the house located on the left-hand side. In a baby carriage, which ran backwards team there were present many of the past memning. 'aptain Traynor, who was out in a dory, near the Brookhouse[†] farm, a large man, The choir table, where Miss Nellie Reas one goes toward Pleasant street, being down the slope to the pond, into which Ships. Guns. Men bers who were invited home to the grand bound for England, as being spoken 700 gan has control, aided by Misses Katie either a negro or wearing a black mask, the next house but one to the Universal. the child was thrown with the above sad jubilec. The anniversary was a complete miles east of Cape Cod ten days ago, Looney, Mary E. Mullin and Fanny Re- ist meeting-house. This house was the result. sprang at his horse's head, but, missing Bellona 600 success and the North Church people did rowing east. his held, attempted to climb over the gan, are ladies' boots, shaving imple- original Baptist meeting-house of Marble--Since its erection in 1818, the present Courageous 600 themselves great credit in the carrying out tail board of the wagon. Wilson struck The annual August storm occurred on ments, rugs, albums, worked cushions, head. The places of residence of the Salem Jail has had upward of 15,000 pris-of the arrangements. him with his whip and he dropped, but Wednesday, and though of short dura- handkerchief-boxes, parlor lamps, ! a later pastors, Rev. E. A. Lawrence for oners. It is now to give way to a new Britannia 100 884 in triumph, and from a beam of which, afterward followed the team. Mr. Wiltion, and we hear of no serious damage large doll, easy-chair, meerschaum pipe, many years near the common and Rev. structure, which it is intended to have now used as the sill of a modern corn-house, the historic wolf was suspended. son stopped his horse, and drawing a being done, yet the day was cold, wet and brass candle-sticks, tea-set, willow rocker, Benjamin R. Allen and Rev. J. H. Will- erected for occupancy on or before Janu-Mr. and Mrs. James B. Shepard ar pipe from his pocket/pointed it at the felextremely disagreeable. hand-painted toilet-set, and a variety of liams each in the parsonage on High ary 1, 1885. The new addition will be of Years ago the huge spike was sawed from at North Conway for a few weeks. low and told him he would put a bullet street, are well known to the younger granite, extending to within ten feet of A lamp exploded at the store of John smaller goods. the beam, and carried as a relic to the far Mr. Samuel Goldsmith, the well-known through him if he advanced another step. Cameron, corner School and Washington The Y. M. C. T. S. table, under the portion of the community. the St. Peter street wall, and 61 feet long Rear, Squadron. West, by one of the descendants of the fish dealer, is spending a few days in the The fellow disappeared. The night was nanagement of Miss Sarah J. Doherty, Of the pastors of the Second Congregastreets, on Tuesday evening. It was by 44 feet wide. The new building will Sir John Lockhart Rose, Rear Admiral former owner of the house. country for the benefit of his health. ormer owner of the house. Through roads that were indeed rough very dark. The police were notified.thrown into the street where it created a with Miss Mary A. Farry as assistant, tional Church, which was orbanized in contain four tiers of cells, with thirty of the Read. Mr. Dennis Grady is soon to pay a visit Salem Register. displays blankets, dinner and tea séts, 1716, Rev. Edward Holyoks, the first cells in each tier, fifteen on a side. The little excitement for a while Frigates, Proscrpine, Vestala, Protos, and unpleasant to ride over,-but whos o his friends in Freland silver spoons, lamps, seal rings, shaving pastor, (1716-1737), resided in the house Ham patent self-locking door will be On Sunday last the Salem and Danvers Fumall, Fineshop, sides were rich with treasures that might Mrs. James O. Sanborn and Miss Grace Malielous Doings. sets, model bonts, dolls, silver bangles, located on Washington street, being on used, and in addition a lock bar will be Shins. Street Railway Company conveyed 1.956 Guns. gladden the heart of the botanist en-Men Langley are on a visit to Chichester. On Wednesday evening, the family of cushions, pocket knives, toy lounges, the right-hand side of the uext building placed over the doors of the cells. The passengers over its line, against 1.864 tomologist, or geologist,-we journeyed N. H. Mr. W. A. Strangman (who lives on the roller-skates, out-glass mirrors, clothes- but one to the corner of Pleasant street. passengers carried over the Lynn and new prison will have two spacious hos-Dublin 600 back to Putnam, well pleased with the Mr. George IL Beadle, who went to Salemiroad near the Getchell farm) were wringers, tidies, collars, etc. All antiquarians must regret that the fine pital rooms. There will be an addition Marblehead road the same day. Medway 500 nanner in which we had spent our day. Texas from Marblehead seven years ago, startled by a large stone coming through The lemonade table is fully supplied old mansion is almost hidden by the on the east side of the present building Formidable 90 750 Mr. Joseph Strong slipped on a stone and happy to know that we had enlarged the window and striking the kitchen s on a visit to this town stores in front of it. Rev. Simon Brad- and another in the rear of the old part on with lemonade and various small drinks. Royal George 100 867 our knowledge of good old Windham on Pleasant street on Wednesday and Mr. Edward B. Bridge has stove. Mr. Strangman ran out and saw Michael Burke is in charge and is kept street, the successor of Mr. Holyoke St. Peter street. The prisoners will be fell to the ground, dislocating his ankle County, and visited the actual battlevisit to Bar Harbor. the parties but was unable to overtake elass boafs. quite busily employed in supplying the (1738-1771) he having been chosen presi-supplied with all modern conveniences.-Miss Addie E. Nevers of Peabody is on He was unable to walk and was obliged ground of Putnam and the Wolf. them. It is probably the same gang that umerous calls dent of Harvard College, built the house Tall Corn Salem Register. Union 90 750 GEORGE MAYNARD to go home in a hack. The accident will a visit to Damariscotta, Me. have been breaking windows in other The weighing and measuring depart- that stands at the corner of Pearl and

The two hundredth anniversary ugust is half gone North Church loccurred on Wednesday. eded : any more served by the church people. The da was stormy; but that did not prevent goodly, gathering of the church beoble with their friends and former parishionand title an estimation and a

The skating rink was open last even The church anniversary dates to a pe Base ball is raging among the riod several years more remote than the building of the first meeting-house. It The American House is being was said that "the fishermen were too re-gled. miss to build one" and that, a "teacher" The Catholic bazar is doing a go (in the person of Rev. William Walton) being dall the relation the easy-going and iness. irreligious fishermen would tolerate," was A number of the first religious guide in the nature of a harbor. minister. Teachers, however, as distinct Robert Pierce captured a large seal lak

Tuesday riod, and it is further recorded that Rev. Mr. P. P. Eustis is improving his stable John Avery declined a call before this on Pond street. teacher came, but being urgently solicit-The dog-days have been true to their ed finally yielded and was on his way to name this year.

take charge of the people when he was The Oceana is reported a with a full fare of fish. Cholera morbus is reported to be common among the children. Augustus Stevens has in his window a potato sprout five feet long. Barnegat can now rest in neace, Sundays. It has police protection. There was a general illumination of the rachts in the harbor last evening. The Unitarians are to hold an apro sale and sociable early next month. The female operatives at Woodbury' factory went on a picnic last Tuesday.

> The St. Michael's parish held a successful sale at its chapel the past week. The town ditch at Commercial street is being dug out and the culvert repaired. Camp-meeting at Asbury Grove begins to-day and closes next Thursday evening. The girls at Woodbury's factory went let us have "Appleton" street.

A number of Marblehead people are occupying cottages at Asbury Grove, Cool days, much rain and few thunder torms are the characteristics of the present summer. The Marblehead Bicycle Club has added pool table to the furnishings of its headquarters. Company C made a fine appearance in its short parade before taking the train. The new ballot-boxes appear to be a and clothes-wringer.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Woods and Mr. probably confine him to the house for and Mrs. Elbridge Carter of Hudson are | several weeks.

A monument to Masconomo is proposed t Manchester. Is Marblehend going to isterial duties, preaching two sermons forget Nanepashemet?

TRE PROPURS COLUMN WHERE SOME OF OUR OLD MINIS SThe people's column is open to the public, without reserves. If very readers of the public, without reserves. If very readers of the public operations is open to the public operations. At the control operation of the control operation of the public operation op

-And so SH. MESSRS. EDITORS :peaks his mind. As to the "want of dis- size of it has been much would of course have been asked for, but tide with the main land, in which the re-"some other day." The plan of the surveyor names thirty- dently, lying about where they five feet as the width of the road which will be wide enough. It will cost money the ocean. Again, Mr. Tom Elkins, who but not out of proportion to the benefits died a number of years ago, aged over conferred. The thing will pay. The proposed road is advocated because greatest number. As has been before site the island; now this spot is a favorite to say the least, convenient. As to the use of the road in case of fire beach-stones is yet to be seen.

use it in preference to the four other built. It will be a step forward.

We think that the railway officials are nces of the North Church. MESSRS. EDITORS :- The North Church has just celebrated its two hundrethan-niversary and among the reminiscences related on that occasion the following concerning the pastorate of the Rev. Shmuel Dana during the war of 1812-15 might have been given. It was during this struggle of four country with Great Britain, many of our people were away fighting the battles for our second independe that the church was so financially combination of hand-organ, bell-punch barrassed that the pastor's salary ($400) could not be paid. But the pastor kept to his post and discharged all of his min-every Sunday, without pay. By chance

TIRS LIVED

being there are the perter protected from bears: "This island does not at present contain three screes but even within the "memory, of the present generation the unctness" being 'deement essential' we north easters, and undoubledly at that would say that the petitioners want the distant date, as tradition says, it was not road and we think that the petition ex- an island but a point of land extending presses the ides. If the eastern, end of into the sea. In confirmation of this is Bassett's lane were covered by the pro- the fact that considerable mack has been posed, improvement the widening of it dug on the bar which connects it at half > as leaves, acorns and pieces of bark, eviwhich proves that the bar was once above ninety, informed me that he remem when a flourishing garden stood on the it has in view the greatest good of the main land a part of Bowden's hill, opposaid-what right has Pleasant street to diving place for the school-boys. It is the road? Residents on that street, in certain that a house of some note in an-case the road goes through, can (when cient days stood on this island, located they feel like it) take the cars at Rocka- where the house now there stands, for it way or at the monument, which will be, was built on an ancient cellar and the remains of a yard neatly paved with -it is apparent to all those possessing pavement was formerly more exten-

common sense that if the road was built sive than now, the road of entrance to and being used every day and there the island having been made through should be a fire down town, the engine A tenant who once occupied the present drivers (they have common sense) would house informed me that a date of 16could be read in white stones imbedded routes and we submit this as one of the among darker ones. Two old, muchbest possible reasons why it should be rusted axes of the Puritan type, were recently dug up in the niece of land close adjoining the house. Rev. Samuel Cheeready to "accolumodate" those that shand ver, who succeeded Mr. Walton, being to the Point of Pines on a picnic on Tues- most in need of being accommodated and the first ordained minister of blarblehead. that the Selection will be "attentive to during the early part of his settlement Phillip A. Thorner is having a large the public wishes" in granting the prever lived on the same island, probably ocaddition built to his barn on Prospect of over five hundred tax-payers. And so cupying the house vacated by Mr. Walton. By Feb. 18, 1705, he had removed into town and as he himself testified was living "next door to Mr. Moses Maverick and keeping in his almanack a register of ye Annual Occurrences in the Towne." Several lines of tradition agree in saying that the first minister lived on Gerry Island, and in one of our old families the great-grandmother's statement, that when a little girl, living in the house near where the gashouse now stands she often saw Par son Cheever drive from this point (it is the family tradition that it was not then an island)- and pass by her house in a horse and "shay," has been handed down through four generations. The island of bare ledge, close by Gerry's Island, known as Jack's Rock, is said to have been so named after Parson Cheey-

NOT BE-BLECTED l, she's getting a li re elected, the papers as

But one exception; -only one; nd she? A teacher old and gray read this news in the twilight here From behind in the dark, you know;

r day by day she has served us well. And month and year through rain and shine bur children were hers -sh, who can tell?-With what a love diving up.

Ay, đảy by day and year by year-She led our own with loving fear, Our own with fealous care.

and now is the faithful heart less so? Or has she forgotten "A, B, C" ? children, once hers, now women, I know Ye think not this to be!

o I say I read in the twilight dim And my heart is bowed with a touch shame: And her grief is mine, who has faithful been For longer than I may hame.

And my scorn is the scorn of each heart For this, sharper than serpent's tooth, ye do

Who fail in Duty's better part Toward a servant tried and true.

[For the Messenger.] MY FRIEND'S PIAZZAS.

wish we all had plazzas. They are so arken the room to Heep out the flies. from a letter from Bristol, March 1, says, in a plazza one can have air and light the Mary, late Capt. Bealy, a threevarious kinds of work and here also decker, an outward-bound ship is taken nock or easy-chair. (And where one has | Bristol, Feb. 28, at Twansey the people friend and his guests, they become a posi- churches, and on board a vessel. The peobloom is a picture itself. Close by a again, the mob came to strike it, the peo- in its verdant summer dress. The village that near by was once a ferry. In the who in their retreat fell in with another very unique" combination of brick and distance are the Manchester woods, but my party under Gen. Leslie who had taken iew some of the residences of West can see their lips move and fancy the and the nearer tinkling bell of the horse-

IN AN ENGLISH PRISON TUTNA CAND THE OPASMARRIPHEAD VISIT TO THE ORDERATE ARTINTAR Who does not remembe story in the reading books of our Thursday, March, Sth., 1781 - Fair eather. From the old Exeter Journal : siasm at the valor of its hero? merica, New York Gazette, Jan: 29, Two The writer well re French, 74 gun ships in company used, when a child, to read the thri the Ardent of 84 gans halled from Rhode tale and picture to himself the som Island, 20th linst. Were followed by a de- when brave "Old Put," surrounded by a stchment from Admiral Graves' soundanxious crowd of hunters, who on. His Majesty's ship Sterling Castle tracked the fierce peast to her lair, was lost on the Silver Keys to the north-ward of old Cape François Hispaniola, 5th of October last. All the crew perished eagerness to effect her capture, all efforts having been exhausted, fearless divested himself of his superfluous clothing, and, with blazing torch in one hand except twenty persons, who saved themelves on parts of the wreck, and were and gun in the other. descended into th obliged to suck the blood of some that subterranean abode of that "monster of died, as the only means left to support a the desert," and, by a well-directed shol miserable existence till they were taken slew his relentless foe. New York .- The British that left This happened at Pomiret, Co New York have landed at Virginia We the winter of 1748, Gen. Putnam, after hear that Major General Phillips comwards the hero of Bunker Hill, being ther mands on this expedition. Gen Arnold young farmer in that town. with 1,500 men and a few light horses Prompted by curiosity, one warm landed below Richmond and marched mer day this year, the writer and a friend into that town; they have destroyed paid a visit to the scene of that story. Westham and all the public works. We had, the day before, listened to Great quantities of rum and sugar. They some stirring Fourth-of-July orations, which had warmed up,our patriotism, and retreated on Saturday. Gen, Nelson is collecting the militia as fast as possible. put us in a proper frame of mind to feel a and following them to harrass their rear. We hear from New York that the Culloden (74) was entirely lost, the Bedford wore a somewhat threatening aspect, we dismasted, part of the French had gone started on our journey in the best of up the Chesabeake after Arnold. The spirits. Thunderer 90 gun ship is entirely lost. From Putnam, Conn., on the Norwich An agent from Congress with proposals and Worcester road, the distance to the is undoubtedly in London at this time, den is some six or seven miles, through and it is whispered that his terms will a beautifully wooded country interonvenient in these days when one must be agreed to by the Cabinet. Extract snersed with rich farms and neat villages the weary one can rest or dream in ham- by the Pilgrim, an American privateer. promised to be unusually light. Our course lay through the beautiful h fine views as can be enjoyed by my hoisted the American colors, in their street, which lies high up on a hill-top tive source of delight. Under our feet ple ordered the flag struck, which was from whose summit one sees a vast and of Mount Desert and the White Mount almost is the peach orchard, which when done. Some time after it was hoisted varied panorama of hill and dale, glorious ains.

pretty grove on a slight elevation hides a ple on board fired and killed 2 men, 11 has of late years become the summer res portion of the city. Spread out in front wounded, and 2 children. The coroner's idence of many wealthy people from New white tablets of the cemetery and know time in December , and defeated them, tention, its walls being constructed of a contrived a movable rest, will bring in Gates, Green, Brannam and Sumpter but which must be seen to be appreciated. trated. with a great number of officers and Descending the long hill, whose steep Beach and faces of the mariners so near we privates had offered to surrender on conditions of having a free pardon. topic of conversation. Behind us we can The emmissaries who were hanged by ear the noisy whistle of the steam-engine order of Congress were Mason and Ogden. Friday, March 9th.-Fair weather. Very

Cumberland 600

Supply for the present year, £21,038,152,

Base-Ball.

Fulfil thy perfect Thought

Our sires adored and worshiped thee, Tet leared beneath thy rod; And if with clearer eyes wo see. Thy judgments with thy grace agree, We bless theo, O our God.

They saw thee in the cloud and dama Wo see thee in the sun. manks for the years, that ave proul Thy justice and thy love the same, And joy and duty one.

pear Fathor, kind when most savere Most loving whon most just :--To lead us through each changing year In pastures wide by waters clear, Thy guiding hand we trust.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

Le Printemps, by Alfred Stevens, an exquisite picture (18x816 inches), is offered as a supplement to the Art Interchange of July 31. It shows a landscape, in the foreground of which is the fulllength figure of a girl leaning against one of two trees which rise straight, tall and fitting regard for the manly virtues of our bare behind her. The immediate forevalorous ancestors, and, although the sky ground is filled with grasses and wild flowers and birds. while a little to the left is a small tree in full blossom. The picture as a whole is one of the most beautiful examples of engraving ever offered to the public, and is well worthy of a frame. Bublished by William Whitlock, 140 Nassan street, New York.

We have received from the New Eng-Along our road, the farmers were blisy land Railway Publishing Co. the July preparing for their annual harvest of the issue of the Pathlinder Railway Guide. hay crop, which, however, this year. This guide is too well known to require any explanation of its contents. It contains a new and complete map of the village of Pomfret, known as Pomfret New England States, the maritime provinces and Quebec, besides separate mans

The Musical Herald for the present month has for music :- "Light of Life" and "Paradise," hymn tunes; "Lord, for I us lies the harbor with its constantly inquest set on the bodies, of the men York and other cities, who have there Thy Tender Mercy's Sake," an anthem by changing panorama of coal vessels, gov- brought in their verdict: self-defence. built for themselves beautiful cottages in Farrent, and "My Lost Love," for the erament boats and pleasure boats, or in Extract of a letter from Paris, Feb. 21, odd, but at the same time attractive piano, by Kienzl, Op. 3, No. 3. The merwinter, ice-boats, skaters and eel men. says a battle has been in Carolina (Corn- styles of architecture. The village ald costs only $1 a years, and its music ust across the water we can see the wallis had engaged the Americans some church, in particular, attracted our at- alone is worth many times that sum.

Frank R. Stockton will contribute quaint and fanciful story, entitled "The smooth cobbles from the surrounding Queen's Museum," to the September St. friend's "fetch 'em near, 7 for which he has the greater part of them; that the Generals fields, producing a most pleasing effect, Nicholas, It will be appropriately illus-> ness makes us feel that it is well to have Breezes from the Bay. two things to rely upon, a kind Providence and a stout harness, +we pass. on

The New York yacht squadron decided to abandon the race to Marblehead, and the squadron was formally disbanded at Providence, on Wednesday.

Mr. W. H. Haley has at his farm at Wilmington a large field of sweet-corn sleep the fathers and the mothers of Pom- The Rockport regatta, which was to fret,-they who, a century and a half ago, have taken place in Ipswich Bay last Saturday, was nostnaned on and reared the sons, who, in later years, the roughness of the weather The Jeffries Boat Club of/East Boston held its fourth championship sailing re-Pursuing our course westward over one gatta last Saturday afternoon off the of the roughest and hilliest roads imboat house at Jeffries Point, East Boston. aginable, we came at last to a rocky cart. In the first class the sloop Judith was the path, which led from the main road di- only boat that appeared at the starting rectly into the woods. Pursuing this point when the signal was fired, and she path as far as practicable, we secured bur sailed over the special nine-mile course team, and, picking our way down the alone. The cat-boats, Unknown and rocky declivity, at the distance of a few Hurd Times, contested in the second class, the race being won by the latter The eighty-ninth regatta of the Beverly rough, and in some place's overhauging Yacht Club and third race for Buzzard's Bay championship occurs to-morrow at 2 P.M., off Monument Beach. At 11 A.M., had come hither to visit this celebrated Saturday, occurs the fourth race for the Buzzard Bay championship and ninetieth To one who had read the description of regatta of the club. The ninety-first reit in books, and seen the pictures of Rut-gatta of the club (third championship nam standing upright in the center of a matches) occurs off Nahant, Saturday, large cavern, while he surveyed with un- August 23, at noon, and the ninety-third daunted eye the savage beast lying in one open sweepstakes regatta will be sailed corner, there was somewhat a feeling of at Marblehead, Saturday, August 30, at The Brunhild is off on a three weeks The yawl Fay has been launched at The two steamers Herald and Telegram building at Lawley & Son's yard, South Boston, to the order of James Gordon Bennett, Esq., will be completed by the but for the story connected therewith, it last of September. The new cutter that Woods of East Boston finished last week for Captain A few rods below the cave is a large Hayward has arrived at her moorings off The center-board sloop yacht North Star, owned by Mr. Henry Hussey, com-A large rock has partially fallen down modore of the South Boston Yacht Club. in the upper part of the cave, somewhat has been sold to Mr. Winfield S. Hutchinson. She is a stanch craft, and is very so far, that, with a long stick we could fast. She sailed Saturday for Marblehead, with Captain Bell as sailing-master. The annual open matches of the Hull our visit in the shape of pieces of the Yacht Club will take place off the club rock and wild flowers, and bade the place house, Hull, to-morrow, commencing at The steamer Mystery which created which we could see, on a distant rise of something of a sensation about Boston land, the old Putham Homestead, and to harbor several years ago by running the south, the town of Brooklyn, where, around without any apparent motor, proworn out by his hard campaigns, the bld pelled by a petroleum engine, has been soldier died, and now lies buried, we recently purchased by Gillam & Eaton passed by the site of the house to which, who have changed her name to Lillian after the successful termination of the and are now fitting her with steam enhunt, the joyous captors bore their prey gipe and boiler and she will soon go into the water. She will be used off Winthron Sick on a Fishing Trip. The C. W. Parker arrived on Sunday from a mackerel trip with Capt. Snow quite sick with neuralgia, to which complaint he/is subject. He is still confined to his home on Front street. The boat was at her moorings until yesterday morning when she started on another Bay Views Again Victorians. At the picnic of the Shlem Bost Club at Smith's Grove, North Andover, yesterday, the Bay View Boat Club of this town won a first prize of $50 in a race for first-and should they get caught will be secessor, Rev. Isaac Story, Also lived. It is naster, receives much patronage. A The family of Poore or Poor, with all s.11, d.2. the stalks of which are from ten to twelve The Mayor of Oakland, Cal., has or- Fairbank's scale and a graduated measur- an interesting fact worth noting that the connected with it by consanguinity or alon a visit to Marblehead. The Clifton's defeated the Beach Bluffs verely dealt with Thursday, 15th .- Fair weather. Very Mr. John H. Keating, the boat builder, feet in height. The cornwas raised from dered the revival of the old custom of ing rod are used and for a five-cent piece three houses where Parsons Barnard, lied with it by marriage, will hold its tri- pleasant. This morning at 6 o'clock the at base-ball at Ward's field, last Shturday is on a trip up the Hudson. Mr. Horace L. Broughton, the genial assistant postmaster, is on a trip to Sara-toga, Lake George, Lake Champlain and other places with a Raymond party. ather places with a Raymond party. Gregory's seed. afternoon by a score of 16 to 11. Good Templars' Union The same day the Fort Beachers were The next quarterly session of the Essex Broke Her Neck. anguished by the Picketts 37 to 17. County Good Templars' Union will be Mr. Benjamin Trefry lost a valuable The Watersides defeated the Nanepashe held in Grand Army Hall, Main Street. cow on Monday. The animal was out of relics, etc., is always sure of a good years old, while each is into fine state of a business meeting and a hanquet at which to the black hole for striking Charles mets, the same day, 15 to 13. Gloucester, next Wednesday, commencstreets after that hour. feeding and was tied, but getting en-Station master John C. Adams was one The M. A. Picketts have accepted A number of Marblchead people at audience who are anxious to bring all preservation. The Rev. John Bartlett there will be speeches and songs, with a Linn, 'Tis said Coventry refused to pay ing at 10 o'clock, A.M. Brother J. D. litangled with the rope about her legs she shallenge from the Mayflowers to play of the staff of the Knights Templars at Woodbury will deliver the essay.' Sub-(1811-1849) lived in a house located in general interchange of family good-feel- Linn some money due to him that occatended the picnic and reunion of the First | their friends to the show. the Greeley reception at Newburyport yes-terday. Singular Accident. A cow belonging to Benjamin Trefry was killed in a singular manner of Bed, when a dog began barking at her, feld, when a dog began barking at her, fell and broke her neck. game of ball at Goodwin's Flats to ject: "How can we best Increase the morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interest in our, Lodges?" Free 'return Friday, 16th.-Fair weather. 75 regi-ment mounted guard. This day Coven-Visitors. tickets over the Eastern Railroad in the A delegition of Gov. Long Lodge vishoe Shipments. ited Crystell Fountain Lodge at Beverly op Wednesday evening to witness the intry was taken out of the black hole. A For the week ending August 13, Paine's lieutenant of a Dutch 50-gun ship taken Auction Sales. Express shipped 990 cases of shoes, being stallation of officers by D: G. W. C. T. by 2 sixty-fours was in the yard, and in-John M. Cloutman sold at auction on 76 less than for the previous week and poseph Bartlett of this town. Last Tuesday a horse belonging to formed us that their High Mightinesses field, when a dog began barking at her, and in trying to drive the canine she and in trying to drive the canine she and in trying to drive the canine she Saturday last the Gregory estate on South street for $2,275, to Capt. William D. and in trying to drive the canine she last evening. The party were informed ments for the corresponding week of last The New Cars. Gregory. The estate of Patrick O'Brien stuck her horns into the ground and of the accident and the probable danger patrons often require that extra help be. 1794, have a very interesting definition of the accident and the probable danger patrons often require that extra help be. 1794, have a very interesting definition of the accident and the probable danger patrons often require that extra help be. 1794, have a very interesting definition of the accident and the probable danger patrons often require that extra help be. 1794, have a very interesting definition of the accident and the probable danger patrons often require that extra help be. 1794, have a very interesting definition of the accident and the probable danger patrons often require that extra help be. 1794, have a very interesting definition of the accident and the probable danger patrons often require that extra help be. 1794, have a very interesting definition of the accident and the probable danger patrons often require that extra help be. 1794, have a very interesting definition of the accident and the probable danger patrons often require that extra help be. 1794, have a very interesting definition of the accident and the probable danger patrons often require that extra help be. 1794, have a very interesting definition of the accident and the probable danger patrons often require that extra help be. 1794, have a very interesting definition of the accident and the probable danger patrons often require that extra help be. 1794, have a very interesting definition of the accident and the probable danger patrons often require that extra help be. 1794, have a very interesting definition of the accident and the probable danger patrons often require that extra help be. 1794, have a very interesting definition of the accident and the probable danger patrons often require that extra help be. 1794, have a very interesting definition of the accident and the probable danger patrons often require that extra help be. 1794, have a very interesting definition of Two new box cars, with Marblehead on Commercial street was bought by Tim-. cient record, a historical deficiency that Pond. The wagon was upset and the he would petition their High Mightinesser but, drove on evidently feeling insulted employed. broke her neck. signs on them were seen on Essex st reet. The fair will probably close on the 22d every passing day will help make good. contents consisting of milk, berries, pota- for it. Mr. Cowday said we might petiothy Hart for $1,350, and the William S. Tarmers' Pichic. Salem. Wednesday. It is now sald that at the officiousness of the Marbleheaders. Roads estate was sold to Andrew Dooley armers Delegate J. J. H. GREGORY. toes, eggs and green corn were mixed, tion to the board and he would forward inst., and it is expected will net a large The Marblehead and Swampscott Farm- the trial trip is to be made Monday, and President Benjamin P. Ware, Esq., has We acknowledge with thanks the receipt sum for the benefit of the church. The for $1,480. ers' Club will hold a pichle at Nahant, August 13, 1884. the regular trips to begin on Tuesday. with leather oushions, canvas covers, ac- it. This same day Robert Girdler came received from Robert Beverly of the from Rev. John W. Chadwick of a pamph- advent of the horse-cars from Salem is: count books and tin caus in one indefina- to the gate and informed us that 10 days on Tuesday next. A special car will Body Found. Farmers' National Congress, a commis-sion to represent the agricultural interests reprint of a discourse delivered at the city contemplate exclinations to the fair. Round trip tickets to Ipsylich on the ble compound, in the dust of the street. ago he saw John Lapthorn in Falmouth leave Marblehead at of A. M., and rethin The body of John Dugan of this town, The Naumkeag Clothing Company is at about 716 o'clock P. M. who whs drowned while swimming for of this district at the New Orleans conclusion of his twenty years' pastorate, The milk wagon was damaged to the ex- on board a brig. Eastern Rollroad can be obtained for 65 prepared to furnish uniforms for the camhis dory near Ram Island about a fort- exposition, to begin December 5, 1884. tent of a broken cross bar and a few (To be continued.) cents. in charge of the Second Unitarian Socie- Overboard. align clubs of Essex County, to Bepublicbunctures in the cover. night ago, was found near Egg Rock last A grand picnic of the Essex County ty of Brooklyn, N. Y. Both in what it . Willie, a little son of Frank Frederick, and Democrats and Independents, at Lost Another Horse. There is a probability that a union Joseph Graves, 4th, lost another horse station for the horse railroad companies, Catholic Temperance Union will be beid on Monday night. The animal was taken will be built it the function of the Lynn at Smith's Park, North Andever on the : Saturday. The body was brought to this A skating party from this town attend- says and how it says it we have found fell overboard from Hathaway's wharf short notice. Suits from 75 cents and up Mr. William Ryan, the blacksmith : town and interred in the Cathollo Cemeed the Peabody rink on Wednesday even- it very interesting, as Mr. Chadwick's on Wednesday, but was rescued by John wards. Samples are now ready for inhaving recovered his health has re-opened i tery on Monday. efforts always are. and Salem rouds. ing. Doliber. spection at their store.-Adv. his old shop on Hawkes street. with colic and died in a few minutes. 21st inst.

ment, with Miss Mary Dooling as weigh- and Mechanics street in which also his suc- Reunion of the Poore Family.