

RUN away from Christopher Bubier, last Monday, a Negro Man named Prince; had on a white cotton Shirt; gray Stockings; striped homespun Jacket lined with Baize, and Breeches of the same; light-coloured great Jacket, lined with Baize, much wore, and mill Cap. Whoever may take up said Negro, and deliver him to Mr. Brown, D. Sheriff, in Salem, shall have Two Dollars Reward, and all necessary Charges paid by

CHRISTOPHER BUBIER.

Marblehead, Feb. 3, 1772.